"The Life That  Lives"

• TAYLOR UNIVERSITY • APR. 13-15 • 1956 •

You and YOUTH Conference

Right in the middle of the most turbulent time in history—now at Taylor's 23rd annual Youth Conference—may we introduce you to "The Life That Lives." All of us here at Taylor are anxious that you should receive the personal challenge to your own life that Youth Conference can afford.

Preparation is being made even now for an interesting spiritual program. Our speakers realize young people's needs and are preparing to help you meet them. Taylor students are planning fellowship hours, discussion groups, and prayer times geared especially to you.

As you come, it is our prayer that YOUTH may know more fully, Christ, Who "alone is the giver of the Life that Lives."

Romans 12:1 "Present your bodies a living sacrifice."

1 John 5:12 "He that hath the Son hath life."

Eugene Nida

Missionary

Dr. Eugene Nida, secretary for versions of the America Bible Society is one of the foremost linguists of the United States. His work includes linguistic research, the checking of manuscripts of new translations, writing of books and articles on languages, anthropology and the science of meaning. He has traveled to more than 50 countries in Europe, Asia, Africa, and Latin America, where he has worked on 120 different languages.

Pete Riggs

Evangelist

Dr. Pete Riggs' early ambition was the entertainment field, with his ultimate goal, a screen actor in Hollywood. Before taking his screen test, he focused his attention and life toward night club entertaining and professional gambling. While he was making plans to build a gambling Casino, he heard the plan of salvation and accepted the Lord Jesus into his heart. Today Dr. Riggs is a witness to the saving power of Christ Jesus as he travels across our nation and abroad, using his acting ability to illustrate and emphasize Bible Truths.

Meet Ann and Joe

Ann Donker

"Four years ago I came to Taylor with the promise from God's Word: "Call unto Me and I will answer thee and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not." Truly, as I have been preparing as a missionary teacher, I can witness to His faithfulness to fulfill each of His promises. The words of this year's chorus expresses it better than I can ever hope to: "He'll crown each step with life anew."

As the time of Youth Conference draws near, I'm looking forward to meeting each of you and together we shall trust God "to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think."

Joe Kerlin

As a young person in high school, I faced the problem of making a complete consecration of myself and my life to the one Who saved me. During my senior year I made this consecration. At the time I did not know whether this would mean full-time service or just service as a layman, but whatever His will for me was, I was determined to do it. Shortly after this I attended Taylor's youth conference. Those three days were a milestone in my Christian experience for I returned home with a deeper assurance of my salvation, a new found knowledge of how to maintain a daily relationship with my Lord, and a deep settled conviction that I would serve Him in a full time capacity. Since then His will has been my guide and I am convinced that "The Life That Lives" is found only in Christ.

Policies of Registration: Because we are limited in our facilities it is impossible for us to handle more than 1000 young people. The date that your registrations have to be in is April 3. If we should reach our goal of 1000 persons before April 3, we will have to refuse further applicants. Apply early! !! If your pre-registration is accepted and you can't come, there will not be any refund made.

Meal Policy: Notice that the Friday evening meal is not included on your meal ticket. Also, the time listed for the meal will be strictly adhered to.

What to bring: This is your Youth Conference and we want you to be comfortable. Bring clothes you'll feel comfortable in—both in the services and in informal social situations. Remember, you'll only be here two days.

Bedding: Mattresses will be provided. The rest of the bedding is your responsibility.

Bookstore: Our bookstore will be open to you. We will be featuring our 1955 Youth Conference record albums for $2.50, and many interesting books to help you in your Christian life.
